New Expanded Edition to Commemorate the 40th Anniversary of Robert Kennedy and rsquo;s 1968 Presidential Campaign. With 30 pages of new material. and ldquo;He was in many ways the greatest president we never had, and rdquo; writes Norman MacAfee in a new introduction to this revised edition of The Gospel According to RFK: Why It Matters Now. In the 81 days of his campaign, RFK outlined what seems today a redemptive vision for America: ending war and decreasing the gap between the races and classes, between rich and poor, black and brown and white. And then he was assassinated on June 5. But his words and thoughts and speeches remain to challenge and inspire. Included in The Gospel According to RFK are Kennedy and rsquo;s lengthy condemnation of war and his extraordinary, extemporaneous eulogy for Martin Luther King. Speeches new to this edition include and ldquo;On the Mindless Menace of Violence and rdquo; and Senator Edward Kennedy and rsquo;s eulogy for his brother at Saint Patrick and rsquo;s Cathedral. The Gospel According to RFK is filled with ideas that can be used to make a better...
