Nine Faces of Love is a collection of love story from a National Best Selling Novelist described by Publishers Weekly as follows. The plot lines are intriguing, the characters memorable and the stories stay with you long after the stories end. Nine Faces of Love displays the bare-bones prose style for which Novelist, Timmothy B. McCann is famous. Its a story of a love that is fraught with the perils of normal relational ups and down but culminates in an ending that will leave you breathless. Its a great piece to start such a roller coaster of emotions. There are three delightful stories that deal with love from a different perspective. Its a love that is almost shared in the story The Imperfect Date. A story about a man who is recently widowed, and is trying to reconnect with who he is after he discovers the only woman he ever loved never loved him. Theres a story entitled Thanks for What Could Have Been, about a woman...
