DANCE ME: TRILOGY

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Marina Bichinsky (illustrator). 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The trilogy Dance Me (2015) was written on public demand to bring as more as possible episodes under one roof after all fictional novels in Dance Me series (1) Dance Me When the Witnesses are Gone; (2) Dance Me and Land Me Your Ear; and (3) Dance Me Edit My Life were published. Taking the second novel as a base, the author has been interwoven the most significant episodes from the first and third novels in the lace of the trilogy, while reducing and turning narrative descriptions in inner monologs, dialogs, and speeches. This technique unified organically the style of the trilogy and the leaving tree of the Gala, dedicated to Sasha s seasons of life celebration. During this event, the friends and family members will be provided with once in a lifetime opportunity to knock-out about Sasha, their own, and each other lives. Nominated witnesses will play the roles of fans, armed with information from the sharable and hidden contexts, existed in their memories and interpreted, according to their abilities to create interferences. Those attendees, who have survived after storms within a variety of life seasons, will be gathered in the virtual kitchen to participate in this celebration while sweltering. Nearly all witnesses said that they are ready to put their pin-up on the warm seats and to take them on the chat for the evening with a good-natured ribbing. So please take a seat in the front row to watch the most remarkable episodes of Sasha s and her surrounding lives in both Eastern and Western worlds. The awe-inspiring information, presented by the witnesses, unfolds a conglomerate of Sasha s and those, who...
